An indulgent self-drive journey

Wellington dining suggestions...

Floriditas

Floriditas has the old world charm of a stylish and comfortable Parisian cafe/restaurant. Known for their seasonal dishes sourced from the finest local and regional supplies, this is the place to go when you want to feel the Wellington vibe over a sumptuous meal.

Martin Bosley's Yacht Club Restaurant

Martin Bosley's menu has a strong focus on fresh produce and seafood, with lots of daily specials. The wine list has a regional emphasis, with particular attention paid to Martinborough and Marlborough. In a fabulous waterfront location, the restaurant offers panoramic views of Wellington and the harbour, excellent service and stunning cuisine.

Logan Brown

Housed in a 1920s banking chamber, Logan Brown is charming without the fuss. Staff pride themselves on knowing a thing or two about what they serve, with the menu revolving around fresh local produce, innovation and an extensive list of local and imported wines. In true Wellington style, even the best have their little quirks – Logan Brown's bar is also a salt water fish tank.

Nikau Gallery Café

Located inside Wellington's City Gallery, Nikau Gallery Café is a wonderful place to relax and recharge. Featuring the best organic produce and an ever changing menu Nikau has something for all tastes. Fully licensed, with relaxed indoor and outdoor dining Nikau is a great place to enjoy a light-meal and a drink with friends before taking in the best in contemporary art that City Gallery has to offer.

Hawthorn Lounge

Based on a gentlemen's retreat, the Hawthorn is an oasis from the hustle of downtown. The Hawthorn has all the grace one would expect from the 1920s. Big band music complements the nattily attired staff.
